The Lexington Hotel is the most centrally located hotel in Richmond, being situated at the corner of Twelfth and Main Streets. All cars pass the Lexington Hotel. We extend to the traveling public a most cordial invitation to make the Lexington Hotel their home while in historic Richmond. Courteous treatment and personal attention is assured every guest. Telephone connection. The dining-room is the largest in the city; the service leaves nothing to be desired. Special attention is paid to the cuisine, and this feature of the Lexington Hotel has merited and achieved an enviable reputation. The Lexington is a short walk to the large department stores. Cars to all parts of the city pass Hotel door. The Post-office, State Library, City Hall and all public buildings are within one to three blocks of this Hotel. The Lexington has many attractions not found elsewhere. It is conveniently situated. All depots within three to four blocks. Wholesale centres within three blocks. This is an advantage to representatives of out-of-town firms. The Lexington contains 300 rooms, large, light, and comfortably furnished. Guests will find here every home convenience. Hydraulic elevators with capable attendants in charge at all hours of the day and night. The Lexington is one block from beautiful "Capitol Square," containing magnificent statuary and historical buildings, the most noted among them, Washington's Monument, recognized as one of the finest works of art in the world.
